Hopwood Ladies kicked off the Autumn with a pootle around Ludlow. A massive thanks to Pip who managed to herd everyone around the beautiful countryside despite many stops for technical difficulties.... And a big Yay! For Tom who managed to cycle up the Long Mynd

Great day at Johnson's Cycle Cross Event where a handful of Hopwood Ladies helped out with the catering... eating cake and sometimes serving coffee

Winter Birthdays
Alison, Tracy, Sally
and Marie

GET OUT OF THE GUTTER

You should always be at least 50cm from the kerb, and sometimes further. Positioning yourself further into the road makes you more visible and forces cars to overtake properly or wait until it is safe to do so
